

The orange plastic cover of an unused expanding file folder was used to create holders displaying barrettes, hair clips, lapel pins, hair combs, ponytail holders, and bobby pins. After cutting the plastic into a variety of shapes and punching a hole in the top of each using a Fiskers hole punch, the holders were loaded with accessories and hung from 3M decorator clips.

Elastic stapled to a 12-inch ruler keeps headbands in place.

A small mirror adhered to the wall using 3M Command Strips makes it simple for children to try on necklaces and earrings.

3M Chord Bundlers make watches and bracelets easy to locate.

Sticky-back Velcro keeps lip gloss handy.

Rulers and 3M Decorating Clips showcase bracelets and necklaces.

After having its base removed, this ballerina hangs gracefully on two 3M Medium Hooks.

A small cardboard box covered wrapped in orange scrapbook paper and adhered to the door holds hair combs.

A ruler with elastic attached holds sunglasses and a second earring tree.

A 3M decorator clip was adhered to the back of a butterfly earring holder and hung from this makeshift sunglasses holder.
